FOREWORD

In constructing this Senior Year book, we have endeavored to accomplish two major objectives. The first is to present a pictorial record of the past year at Dixon High School. Whether or not we have accomplished this remains for the student body to decide.

Our other aim, and perhaps the fundamental reason for the publishing of this book, is to produce a tangible, rather than an abstract memorial to the Senior class. It seems only proper that the emphasis in a book like this should be placed on the Seniors, for after all, this book will undoubtedly be cherished more by them than by any other class. Therefore, we respectfully dedicate this Senior Year Book to the class of 1933.

Dixon High School
From the Air,

*A Place of Beauty
And Friendship Rare.*

Seated—FRAZER, BURNHAM, LANCASTER, C. WHITE, COTTA, LAZIER, F. WHITE, WRIGHT, ENEROTH, SELANDER, BOWERS.
Standing—SHARPE, KLING, RICHARDSON, HEINLE, SCOTT, WEINMAN, LAWSON, WEAVER, ARMINGTON, WEISS, NEWMAN, KINSELLA, AUSTIN, LINDELL.

The Senior Class of 1933 is most grateful to the members of the Dixon High School faculty, for the splendid opportunities they have given us, both as individuals and as a class to develop personality and talent in addition to scholarship.

The teacher, engaged to teach English or history, who sacrifices his or her leisure hours to extra-curricular activities with the students, supplies them with unreplaceable means of enjoyment and improvement. Since the faculty has made it possible for this class to participate in numerous organizations, the average senior is better equipped to meet the problems of life than students from any other high school in the vicinity.

P. T. A. LOAN EXHIBIT

One of the most unusual and interesting exhibits ever held in Dixon was the Loan Exhibit in the gymnasium under the auspices of the High School P. T. A. Mrs. L. M. Davies, assisted by many chairmen of other departments, was the general chairman of the exhibit. With the kind co-operation of the townspeople, the P. T. A. was able to make it possible for everyone to see collections of handsome objects from all over the world, as well as many family relics. The exhibits were divided into several different departments and arranged on long tables around the room.

There were many treasures too numerous to mention but among these was a handsome German bible loaned by Mr. Brauer. The book was written entirely in German and the illustrations were pictures of the members of the reigning German house. Mrs. Withers, chairman of the Indian section was able to obtain a very fine collection of hand made Indian work from Miss Caroline Eels. Mrs. Willard Thompson gathered a number of articles which were placed in a miscellaneous section. In this division was a beautiful Chinese locket about three hundred years old, loaned by Mrs. Fred King, some hair jewelry loaned by Mrs. L. D. Dement, two chairs almost one hundred and fifty years old loaned by Miss Becker, and many other articles. The collection of paper weights, the most unique being loaned by Mr. Brauer, was very interesting. Mrs. Joseph Beech exhibited some Chinese embroidery which attracted much admiration. Mrs. Robert Sterling was in charge of the lace, and perhaps the most outstanding piece was a rose-point lace berthia belonging to Miss Fannie Murphy. Mrs. Zolen Glatter charmingly arranged several of her own Hungarian vases and beautiful embroidery. There were many other departments including quilts, brass, copper, shawls and firearms.

As a feature of the program about fifty high school girls wore costumes from many periods ranging from pre-Civil War to Post-World War. Since there were many varieties and colors of costumes it is impossible to describe them all here but choose a typical one from each period. Kathleen Feely was dressed as a typical "Gibson Girl" in a dress with a scarlet bodice. Emma Stein wore a white dress belonging to Mrs. Richard Bovey. Eleanor Ketchin, as a bridesmaid, wore a gold taffeta ball gown. Emily Swan was dressed as a bride in a lovely gown, belonging to Mrs. Willard Thompson, and surrounded by the usual bridesmaids.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

COACHES

MR. BOWERS

One of the men who takes an active part in the athletics in the Dixon High School is Mr. Bowers, our present athletic director and track coach. Much of the success and fame of Dixon High School teams is due to him.

MR. LINDELL

"Lindy" has an unanny knack of knowing just where to put someone, and when to put them there and the result is a perfect football team. Through his efforts Dixon High has had two championship teams.

MR. SHARPE

Just as keen on the basketball floor as in the classroom is our versatile Mr. Sharpe. Through his training and supervision, the Dixon High team has shown marked improvement. Under his continued supervision we predict great things for the 1934 D. H. S. squad.

Senior Year Book

SENIOR LETTERMEN

JOHN CRABTREE—Football Captain

For four successive years, "Apple" has held down the position of guard on Dixon's football team. He was probably the best lineman Dixon has ever had.

CURTIS STRONG

"Money" is a nine letter man and one of the greatest athletes Dixon has ever produced. He starred in football, basketball and track.

LYLE FORDHAM

"Flash" has also won letters in three sports. He was most outstanding in football and his graduation leaves a big hole to be filled.

PAUL POTTS

Paul has been a letterman in two sports. He was regular end for three years in football and played guard in basketball.

LEROY COOK

Cook also played both basketball and football. He was very dependable in either and leaves a fine record behind him.

DONALD LERDALL

Don won three letters in football and was a tower of strength in the line. His fighting spirit and keen knowledge of the game will be sorely missed.

GERALD BATES

Bates also has won three football letters. His blocking and tackling ability marked him as an excellent player.

EVERETT LIGHTNER

"Bud" was the best man in the backfield without a doubt. He was a fast, shifty runner and a brilliant punter. His loss is a blow to the football team.

CLYDE DANIELS

Clyde won his second letter in football this year. He was most outstanding for his ability to block punts which he did several times.

NED WHITEBREAD

Ned in his first year of football became a star halfback. He was an elusive runner and an excellent forward passer.

JOE BEECH

Joe won his letter in basketball and has also won one in track. Joe is best remembered for the excellent basketball he played in the Sterling game.

FLOYD KELLAR

Kellar's weight and fight made him an excellent guard. Very few gains were ever made through him.

EARL FLANAGAN—Basketball Captain

Earl's excellent basket eye and all around playing ability made him a fine forward. He certainly deserved the honor of being basketball captain.

ROBERT BOVEY

Bob played fullback and won his letter through fine blocking and tackling. It was his first year on the squad but he played like a veteran.

FRANCIS KENNEDY

The marvel of the team was Kennedy, our center. He was one of the lightest men on the squad but he continually outplayed opponents much larger than himself.

LOWELL WHITEBREAD

Lowell was light but speedy and it was this speed that won him his letter. He was a very aggressive tackle.

BYRON WEIDMAN

Weidman was a good tackle and was a fine defensive man. Very few opposing backs ever got through "Barney."

To the Year Book staff which gave its time and worked diligently for the success of this publication

To the typing department for their excellent co-operation in typing all articles

And last but not least, to the student body which gave its whole hearted support to this book. Without the spirit of co-operation shown by the students in posing for the group pictures, it would have been impossible to issue this book on time

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

It is only fitting, and surely most proper, that the Year Book Staff here give credit to the Professional Men who have so nobly supported our publication this year. We of the staff had before us a serious problem in securing financial support. In our distress we appealed to these men, who in an unselfish attitude, gave liberally to our cause.

Surely such an attitude, of which we are so proud, should be acknowledged. And we sincerely feel that words cannot express our appreciation for such support
